In attendance: Steve, Nolan, Marcus, Meg, Keli, Dave, Craig, Joy, Schmid-E, Sante, Jenny, Nitro, Stefan, Diana, Marc, Guy, Andres, Brie, Patrick, Michael

Note: Dave would like 4-6 more rangers on shift than he had at Decomp

Ticketing

- Will be sold via Brown Paper Tickets

- Tix to go on sale Jan 1 (hopefully)

- Price tiers will be $5 (volunteer) / $15 1st tier, up to $40 in final tier, if tickets are still available

- Sold through PayPal and ticket vendor so some funds are available before event

- No door sales

- Guy suggests adding option for buyers to donate to art fund

  - A process needs to be set in place with art committee

  - Steve suggests "donation to event" instead

  - Guy will see if donation amount needs to be blank space or fixed

- Final suggestion: Let the donate option be available until Feb 28, through PayPal, so art funds will be available ahead of time

  - Unanimous vote - yes!

- Brie suggests having Brown Paper Tickets mail physical tickets to people

  - Attendees must have ticket in hand for entry

  - Ticket stub will be torn off at gate

Jan 1

- Volunteer sign ups, DJ sign ups, everything to go up on the same day

Venue

- Meg has donated the Fusion Factory space, Steve suggests adding $1 to price of all tickets to give back to the warehouse to help cover their overhead for the event

- Moved and seconded

- Vote: 18 for, 2 abstained

Roles

- Schmid-E - theme camp liaison

- Angela - decor

- Greeters - Jenny

Budget

- $5000 estimated need

Permitting

- City of Denver's green initiative - we don't meet any of the requirements

- City sound team will come out day of build and morning of event to help us avoid noise violations

- Event application has been submitted to city and traffic control

Closing 36th Street

  - Barricades are in the budget

  - Brie and volunteers will make street closure signs

  - Initial approval has been obtained
